Prólogo

Made in Corrientes – English Book – Level 3 (MiC 3) es el último eslabón de esta serie de libros de inglés denominados Made in Corrientes. Fiel al estilo de esta serie, MiC 3 fue escrito por docentes correntinos para los estudiantes de las escuelas primarias correntinas. Al igual que los libros anteriores, tiene por objetivo, no solamente promover el aprendizaje de la lengua cultura inglesa, sino también desarrollar otras habilidades cognitivas como el pensamiento crítico.

Con el foco puesto en los Esteros de Iberá, MiC 3 los sumergirá en nuestro territorio, con nuestros animales autóctonos, nuestros personajes más queridos, y nuestras costumbres. Santi, María y Martín, le enseñarán a Andy la esencia y el orgullo de ser correntinos. Sin dudas, aprender inglés es una experiencia más entretenida y significativa desde esta perspectiva.

Al igual que los anteriores, esta edición está llena de actividades desafiantes e interactivas que han sido elaboradas en base al Diseño Curricular Jurisdiccional por un equipo de referentes técnicos del Ministerio de Educación, y profesores de inglés de diferentes niveles que se desempeñan en escuelas primarias e institutos de formación docente de distintas localidades de nuestra provincia.

MiC 3 amplía el enfoque comunicativo de la lengua extranjera e incorpora actividades basadas en las neurociencias y la teoría de las inteligencias múltiples con el fin de promover el desarrollo de capacidades como la comunicación, el pensamiento crítico y creativo, y el trabajo con otros, fomentando la responsabilidad social para la toma de conciencia por el uso de los recursos naturales.

Esta serie de libros es producto de las acciones que desde el Ministerio de Educación de la provincia llevamos adelante para elevar la calidad de la educación de todos los correntinos.

What is your job like ?

In the Iberá Wetlands
I work with different people.

1. Match the people with their routines.

1 He is Pascual, the ranger.

2 She is Nora, the cook.

3 He is Fernando, the pilot.

4 She is Karina, the animal keeper.

a She works in the kitchen. She cooks for Karina and the biologists. She wears a dress, sandals and an apron. She likes to cook torta frita because it is her favourite food.

b He works at Iberá National Park. He takes care of the park. He wears a shirt, cargo pants and alpargatas. He doesn't wear a cap. He likes his job because he protects the Wetlands.

d He doesn't work in San Miguel. He flies a plane. He wears a blue hat. He likes his job because it is exciting.

c She works in the woodlands. She feeds Tobuna and Nahuel every day. She wears cargo pants and a top. She likes her job because she loves animals.

2. Choose a person and ask 4 questions to your partner.

Is it a man or a woman?

A man.

What does he do?

He flies a plane.

What does he wear?

He wears a blue hat.

Is he a pilot?

Yes, he is.

Is he Fernando?

Yes, he is.

6. Project 'My Finger Staff'.
Work in groups. Imagine you are workers in the Iberá Wetlands.
Who do you work with? Write about your staff.

Prepare finger puppets about the jobs to present them to your friends.

What's your daily routine?

1. Circle an option to predict his routine.

In winter, he never gets up before:

- a. 6 a.m.
- b. 5:30 a.m.
- c. 7 a.m.

For breakfast, he never has:

- a. coffee.
- b. tea.
- c. mate.

He always goes to work by:

- a. car.
- b. horse.
- c. bike.

Look at this article, Miss Laura. He is Pascual, the ranger in the Iberá Wetlands. He works with my father.

Interesting! Let's find out about him.

He speaks:

- a. English.
- b. Guaraní and Spanish.
- c. French.

When he gets dressed, he always wears:

- a. a uniform.
- b. gaucho clothes.
- c. jeans and T-shirt.

After lunch, he always:

- a. watches TV.
- b. goes to bed.
- c. plays with the dog.

2. Read the article and check your predictions.

Pascual Pérez is a park ranger. He leads nature tours and studies animals and plants from the Wetlands. He teaches children how to take care of our natural and cultural heritage. He is from Mburucuyá, Corrientes. He works at the Iberá Wetlands. He speaks Guaraní and Spanish.

He usually gets up at 5:30 a.m. in Spring and Summer. In Winter, he never gets up before 7 a.m. Pascual doesn't have an alarm clock. The birds wake him up when the sun rises.

After breakfast, he always goes to work. Pascual doesn't wear a uniform, he wears gaucho clothes. He always has a torch, a knife and a walkie talkie. He sometimes uses his binoculars and he never forgets his best friend Ñaro, his horse. He helps him cross rivers and lagoons.

Pascual never has coffee for breakfast. He always has mate with his friends. They sit around the fire. They sometimes eat mbaipy. Mbaipy is a typical dish from the region. Breakfast is an important moment for Pascual and his friends because they make important decisions about their work. They sometimes speak about their families and tell stories, too.

Pascual never stops working to have lunch. He takes the food in his bag. It is called 'avío'. His favourite 'avío' is empanadas. He always has dinner at 8 p.m. and goes to bed. He is very happy and loves his job.

3. Read the article again and order the pictures.

Maitei!

4. Read about Pascual again and complete the boxes.

- a. He ALWAYS has dinner at 8 p.m.
- b. He SOMETIMES eats Mbaipy.
- c. He NEVER has coffee for breakfast.
- d. He _____ has mate.
- e. He _____ wears a uniform.
- f. He _____ uses his binoculars.

Students: Wow!

Pascual: It's brown. It has got big ears, long legs and a short tail.

Martin: What are those on the right?

Mr. Adams: Those are yacarés. They live in the water.

Pascual: Those are black yacarés or 'yacaré negro'. They have got black skin and a big mouth.

Martín: Yes, and sharp teeth!

Maria: What's that Pascual?

Pascual: That's a special bird, María. It's a 'Jabirú'.

Maria: It's beautiful!

Mr. Adams: Yes! It has got two wings with white feathers.

Santi: And a big black beak.

Pascual: Now, it's time to meet the jaguars.

1. Read and answer: What do the kids find?

Andy, Santi and Maria are walking around the Iberá Wetlands with Pascual when they get lost. Suddenly, they see two jaguars behind a fence. They are really surprised.

Santi: Wow! Look at those tigers!

Andy: They aren't tigers, they are jaguars.

Karina: Hi kids, I'm Karina, the animal keeper, and they are Nahuel and Tobuna, the yaguaretés in danger of extinction.

Kids: Hello Karina!

Maria: Aww, they are so nice!

Karina: Yes, they are. Can you see Nahuel? He's taller than Tobuna.

Santi: Oh yes, but Tobuna is younger than him.

Karina: You're right! She's younger than Nahuel, and faster than him, too.

Andy: Look at Nahuel! He's playing with a ball! I think he's funnier than Tobuna.

Kids: Yes, but Tobuna is more beautiful than Nahuel.

Andy: Wow! They are amazing!

Santi: Do you take care of them?

Karina: Yes, I do.

Andy: Right, so you know Pascual!

Karina: Yes, we work together. Are you with him?

Maria: Yes, but we are lost.

Karina: OK. Don't worry; I'll help you find him. Let's go!

Kids: Thank you!

2. Read and answer True or False.

And the most dangerous, too!

Bird watching is the most boring activity.

That's not true! Birds are the sweetest animals.

I prefer horse-riding. I love horses.

That's right! Well, there are many interesting things to do tomorrow. We can go fishing, go bird watching, or go horse-riding. What do you prefer?

Is there any other option?

Sure! We can visit the floating island!

Yes! Let's go to the floating island! It's exciting!

Can we invite Irupé, please?

Yes, of course!

Chamamé and Sapucay, the sounds of Iberá

Pascual: Welcome to our Chamamé Festival!

María: Wow! There are a lot of people!

Santi: Yes! They are wearing gaucho clothes and they're dancing chamamé.

Martín: Mmmm... look at all that food! That's Irupé's mother. She is a great cook. She always prepares delicious food.

Andy: Yummy!!! There are empanadas, chipa, mbaipy, and what's that, Martín?

Martín: That's chicharrón.

María: Look! That's Irupé and her family! She's singing, her brother is playing the accordion and her father is playing the guitar.

Martín: Listen! She has a very beautiful voice!

Santi: Yes! She is a good singer.

María: She's the best.

Andy: Can you dance chamamé?

Santi: I can't, but Pascual dances very well. Look! He is dancing with Karina.

Can you dance Chamamé?

It's the last day in the Iberá Wetlands. The children are excited because there is a big festival in San Miguel.
